

E-participation for forthcoming academic event organized by the PG Department of Home Science,
University of Rajasthan, Jaipur

Dear Friends

Warm greetings from the Department of Home Science!

We are pleased to inform you that the Department is celebrating its 30th Foundation Day on Basant Panchmi (i.e 4th February, 2014) in the PG Department of Home Science. On this occasion we are organising a round table on “Changing Face of Home Science: Need of the Hour”.

We seek your gracious e-participation in the above mentioned round table by sending your innovative and valuable views on the theme of round table in the form of very clear, realistic and applicable points (in not more than 200 words) latest by 3rd February, 2014 through e-mail at the email id given below. We would send you proceedings of round table and e-certificate for participation.

We would be very grateful for your participation and are sure that our joint efforts will go a long way in changing the face of Home Science and making it more relevant in today's time.

With warm regards

Anju Bhatia
