
A GUIDE TO UNIVERSITY HOSTELS

UNIVERSITY OF RAJASTHAN
JAIPUR
2014-15

MESSAGE

Dear Friend,

We welcome you to the University Hostel. The University presently has seventeen hostels which cater to hundreds of students coming from India and abroad and provide an experience in youth-cultural living. Fifteen (9 boys and 7 girls) hostels are in the University campus and two hostels; Annie Besant/Mother Teresa and Gokhale are in the campuses of University Maharani and Maharaja Colleges respectively.

The hostel is a home away from home. The Warden therefore is not only an administrator or a controller, but one who is always there to share your problems and difficulties and ready to help you solve them. The Warden's endeavour would be to make your stay comfortable and your endeavour should be to follow the laid down rules, guidelines and maintain discipline in the hostel and to inculcate family culture rather than casteism and regionalism. Values like concern and consideration for others, understanding and respect for other opinions, sympathy and co-operation ought to be developed.

Insistence on strict adherence to the relevant rules and the code of conduct as laid down in the Guide is not to restrain you from having a good time but a training in discipline which is an integral part of education. In an institution of higher education your and our prime concern is the pursuit of academic excellence and to maintain the best tradition of community life. We are happy that Inter hostel youth festival has been revived after a long period of time with sincere commitment to offer opportunities to inmates to demonstrate their brilliance and creativity as well as to create a conducive homely environment.

We wish you a fruitful and rewarding stay in the hostel with the hope that you will make us feel proud of you.
